

III European Conference: "The Value of European Craftsmanship as a Transmitter of our Culture"

Vilniaus Karoliniškių Gimnazija
Vilna (Lithuania)
28 - March - 01 April 2022

Participates

Organization by

Using ITC's to preserve
European Crafts

C3 EUROPEAN MOBILITY CONFERENCE: "THE VALUE OF EUROPEAN CRAFTSMANSHIP AS A TRANSMITTER OF OUR CULTURE"

- Type of activity: Short-term joint training events for staff
- Leading organization: Vilniaus Karoliniskiu Gymnasium
- Participating organizations
 - I.E.S. Playamar
 - Fulston Manor school
 - Saku Gümnaasium
 - Mendelova sredni skola, Novy Jicin
 - Fjolbrautaskoli Nordurlands vestra

Start period	Duration (in days)	Host country
28/03/2022	5	Lithuania

Participants	Teachers	Students
9	2	7

Planning

Monday March 28 2022

9:00 Welcoming at the school. Tour around the school.

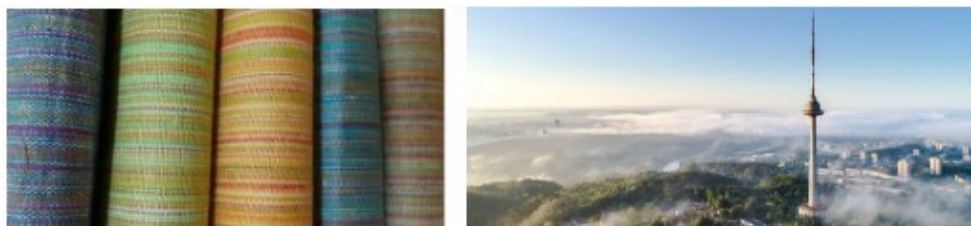

10:00 Coffee break

10:30 A15: Psychology of color and visual codes. Colorful Handmade woven stripes. Workshop.

12:00 Lunch, coffee.

13:00 Trip to the TV tower. Pics workshop creation from the Bird's Flight.

15:00 Podcast creation workshop

Tuesday March 29 2022

9:00 Workshops in groups: A14: Design as a transmission of culture.

- 1) Straw garden creation workshop
- 2) Woodwork workshop – nesting boxes
- 3) Easter palms of the Vilnius region workshop

10:00 Coffee break

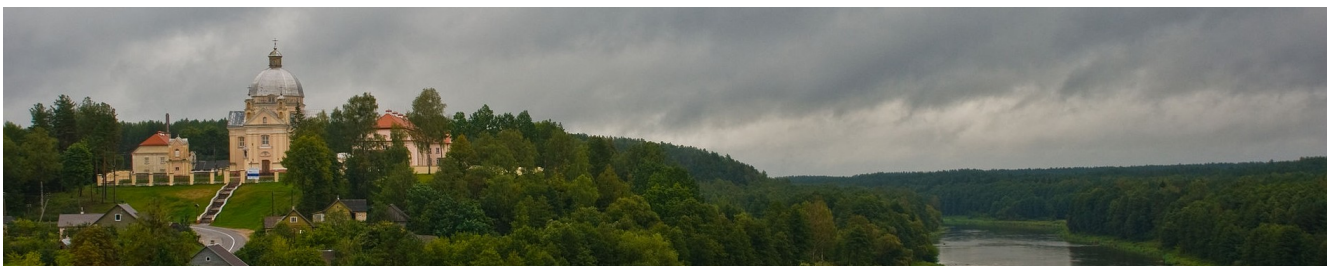

10:15 Continuing workshops in groups.

11:30 Lunch, coffee

12:30 A12: Visual Thinking. Presentations of the crafts of the different groups using Visual Thinking

14:00 A16: Historical milestones in European crafts. Crafts tour Vilnius and The Old Town.

Wednesday March 30 2022

8:00 Leaving for Druskininkai. Educational excursion.

11:00 Sightseeing tour round the town of Druskininkai with coffee and snack stop.

11:45 A13: Crafts as a cultural industry. Salt souvenir workshop. 'Salty handcrafts' at 'The Salt Studio'. (price 8-9 eur a person).

13:00 Lunch at 'Sky Vault' in Druskininkai.

14:00 Sightseeing tour on the way to Vilnius. Liskiava, Merkyne.

18:00 (approx) Arrival to Vilnius.

Thursday March 31 2022

8:30 Leaving for Trakai. Educational historic sightseeing tour.

10:00 Tour round the historic town and the castle.

12:00 Lunch at the Old Kybyn house.

13:00 A17: Crafts in traditional gastronomy. Heritage of the national minority. Crafted cuisine. Culinary heritage lesson of Karaim kybyns. (8-9 eur a person).

16:00 Arrival to Vilnius.

18:00 Closing dinner.

Friday April 01 2022

9:00 Closing Certificate Ceremony in assembly hall.

Closing Concert

11:00 Evaluation and analysis time of achieving goals for teachers

Contents:

- Historical milestones in European crafts.
- Design as a transmission of culture.
- Market Ethics and Ecosocial Responsibility of Applied Arts
- Creativity in Applied Arts: between the Project and the Process.
- Crafts as a cultural industry.
- Psychology of color and visual codes.

6) Activities:

- A12: Visual Thinking.
- A13: Crafts as a cultural industry.
- A14: Design as a transmission of culture.
- A15: Psychology of color and visual codes.
- A16: Historical milestones in European crafts.
- A17: Crafts in traditional gastronomy.
- Final Products Activities : Podcast Creation

(*) The training will be given by the host team and local Experts

Expected results.

Among the expected results of our meeting will be

- Develop the crafts skills of participants
- Development of the online museum of European crafts.
- Recording of podcast for online radio
- Strengthen social ties to consolidate the work team.

Dissemination activity:

- Invitation to the local press & television.
- Publication on the project website and (where appropriate) on online radio.
- Invitation to political and educational authorities of regional and local rank.

Evaluation:

Through questionnaires on Google Drive.

Participation of other agents:

Families and local artisan associations are involved in some activities, strengthening the existing relationship and integrating them into the project.